Several checks have been written since the last meeting to cover fair expenses including checks to Ryan Langenkamp, Karen Stanley, Wherlings, Backyard Team Apparel and Jacquelyn Deeter. Stephanie Bailey moved to accept the treasurer's report, and it was seconded by Tommy Shaw. Motion passed.

This meeting was held to go over odds and ends before the fair. Below are items discussed:

- Jacob Wuebker reported that Wherlings will be at the fair at 4 pm on Thursday. He also has three blocks of cheese for the display basket at the fair.
- We need to decorate and display the gallon of milk at the sale. We decided to get a four-pack of gallon jars from Amazon so we have some for the coming years.
- Ryan Langenkamp sent out buyer letters explaining the changes of the sale and the gallon of milk to buyers. He also has the buyer thank-you video ready to be displayed on the TV in the parlor.
- Stephanie Bailey has the scavenger hunt ready for Sunday afternoon. It will begin at 2 pm and she has candy and prizes for the winners. The t-shirts are in and ready to be handed out.
- Update on the dairy clinic – Carrie and Sarah Rhoades will tag-team the clinic with both showmanship and grooming. We are paying them each $100.
- Heidi May asked if we would like to have a thick tarp made for the divider between the hog and dairy cattle so we do not have any incidents like last year. She said she could get quotes.
- Sawdust will arrive on Monday, August 11 at 1 pm and 3 pm.
- Jr. Fair Market Judge – Richard Bowden

Tommy Shaw moved to adjourn the meeting, Ryan Langenkamp seconded. Meeting adjourned.
